

Bird House Making Contest Rules

1. All participants will be asked to pay a $10 registration fee. Participants can then go to the Habitat ReStore and pick out up to $10 of supplies to make their birdhouse entry. Participants are welcome to use items from home as well.
 - ◆ The Habitat ReStore is located at:

The Marketplace in Manville
110 North Main Street
Manville, NJ 08835
 - ◆ The store hours are:

Tuesday - Saturday 10 a.m. - 5 p.m.
2. All bird house creations should be dropped off at the ReStore by Saturday, March 13th.
 - ◆ Tuesday, March 16th - Wednesday, March 31st, shoppers will choose which bird houses they think should win the contest by placing donations in containers assigned to each entry.
 - ◆ At the end of the contest, these donations will be donated to the Habitat ReStore.
 - ◆ On Wednesday, March 31st, a small panel of judges will choose the winners. RV Habitat staff will notify the contest winners in early April.
 - ◆ There will be winners in three categories and a grand prize winner:
 - The three categories are:
 - Most loved by Restore Shoppers
 - Most creative
 - Most functional
 - The grand prize winner will be awarded to the most creative birdhouse that is also very functional.
 - Google Audobon Society Bird House Plans to find many links that will give you clues about what makes a bird house functional.
3. If you did not register for the Bird House Making Contest when you registered for International Women Build Week, it's not too late! You can pay for your registration directly at the ReStore and deliver your Bird House entry by Saturday, March 13th.
4. At the end of the contest, bird houses can be:
 - donated to the Habitat ReStore for sale to the general public which will ultimately help build affordable homes for humans.
 - picked up by the creator to enjoy in their own yard or to give as a gift.

Any bird houses that are being picked up by the creator must be picked up April 1 - April 3rd. Any that are not retrieved within this timeframe will become available to the public to purchase on Monday, April 5th.
